SECTION 3. DECLARATION. When a developer, the sole owner, or the co-owner of a building or proposed building or buildings expressly declares through the recordation of a master deed, master lease, or declaration which sets forth the information provided in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section, and which sets forth the intent to submit that property to a timeshare regime, that property shall be established henceforth as a timeshare estate.

(a) The declaration made under this section shall include:

(1) a legal description of the timeshare property, including a ground plan indicating the location of each existing or proposed building to be constructed on the timeshare property;

(2) a description of each existing or proposed timeshare unit, including the location and square footage of each unit; the description shall include an interior floor plan of each existing or proposed building;

(3) a description of the amenities furnished or to be furnished to the purchaser;

(4) a statement of the fractional or percentage part which each timeshare interest bears to the entire timeshare regime; and

(5) any additional provisions that are consistent with this section.

(b) Any timeshare interest created pursuant to this section is an interest in land within the meaning of Subsection (1) of Section 2 of The Real Estate License Act (Article 6573a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); provided, however, that Subsection (b) of Section 1 of The Real Estate License Act shall not apply to the acts of an exchange company in exchanging timeshare periods under a timeshare program.

(c) Any timeshare interest located wholly without this state may be sold or otherwise disposed of within this state if the timeshare property is in full compliance with the legal requirements of and may be validly sold or otherwise disposed of as a timeshare property in the jurisdiction in which the timeshare property is located and if all information required in this section is included in the disclosure statement.

SECTION 4. CONVEYANCE AND ENCUMBRANCE. Once the property is established as a timeshare regime, each timeshare interest may be individually conveyed or encumbered and shall be entirely independent of all other timeshare interests in the same timeshare property. Any title or interest in a timeshare interest may be recorded.

SECTION 5. COMMON OWNERSHIP. Any timeshare interest may be jointly or commonly owned by more than one person.

SECTION 6. REGISTRATION. (a) No person shall offer or dispose of a timeshare interest unless the timeshare property is registered with the commission; provided, however, that a developer or any person acting on his behalf may accept a reservation and a deposit from the prospective purchaser if the deposit is placed in an escrow account with an escrow agent and if such deposit is fully refundable at any time at the request of the purchaser. In no event shall the deposit be forfeited unless by a subsequent written instrument the purchaser affirmatively creates a binding obligation. A developer or anyone acting on his behalf shall not dispose of or encumber a timeshare interest during any period within which there is in effect an order by the commission or by any court of competent jurisdiction revoking or suspending the registration of the timeshare property of which such timeshare interest is a part.

If the project instruments do not expressly authorize the creation and disposition of timeshare interests, the application shall contain evidence that existing owners of the condominium development were provided at least 60 days notice in writing prior to the application for registration that timeshare interests would be created and sold. In the event the project instruments prohibit the creation or disposition of timeshare interests, the application shall contain a certification by the authorized representative of all existing owners that the project instruments have been properly amended to permit such creation and disposition.

(e) The commission shall investigate all matters relating to the application and may in its discretion require a personal inspection of the proposed timeshare property by any persons designated by it. All direct expenses incurred by the commission in inspecting the property shall be borne by the applicant. The commission may require the applicant to pay an advance deposit sufficient to cover such expenses.

(f) The commission may prescribe and publish forms and rules necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act and shall be empowered to suspend or revoke the registration of any seller if, after notice and hearing, the commission determines that a seller has materially violated this Act.

(g) The commission shall establish reasonable fees for forms and documents it provides to the public and for the filing or registration of documents required by this Act.

(9) the redistribution of a timeshare interest by a purchaser who acquired such interest for his personal use.

SECTION 8. PURCHASER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL. (a) A purchaser may cancel a contract to purchase a timeshare interest before the fourth day after the date the contract is executed if the purchaser did not visit the location of the timeshare unit and have the opportunity to inspect a substantially complete accommodation comparable to the accommodations being offered for sale before the contract was signed. A purchaser may not waive his right of cancellation under this section. A contract containing a waiver is voidable by the purchaser.

(b) If a purchaser elects to cancel a contract under Subsection (a) of this section, he may do so by hand-delivering notice of cancellation to the seller or by mailing notice by prepaid United States mail to the seller or to the seller's agent for service of process. Cancellation is without penalty, and all payments made by the purchaser before cancellation must be refunded before the 21st day after the date on which the seller receives notice of cancellation.

(B) a complete explanation of the nature of the purchaser's material default under such contract and of the date of its occurrence;

(C) a statement that pursuant to the terms of the purchase contract the applicant is entitled to the escrow deposit;

(D) a statement that the developer has no knowledge of a dispute between the purchaser and developer and a statement that the purchaser has not, to the applicant's knowledge, made a demand for the return of the deposit; and

(E) a statement that the purchaser has not exercised a right of cancellation under Section 8 of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section, the escrow agent may release the escrow deposit to the applicant upon presentation to the escrow agent of:
